

Inherit the Wind Webquest
Speaking out against Injustice (15 points)

Names _____

The Internet can be an excellent research source for you. This lesson is designed to provide you with some familiarity with research web sites. However, because our time is quite limited and searching the Internet can be quite time consuming, I have pre-selected sites for you to visit. You may choose the sites you want of the ones I have listed. Try to access as much information as you can in your 45 minutes session.

1. To access a site, go to my website [jonesclassesonline.weebly.com] and open the file, "Inherit the Wind webquest." This document will allow you to click on the URLs for the sites listed below.

- Tennessee v. John Thomas Scopes Trial Photographs
- Famous Trials in American History
- NPR: Remember the Scopes Monkey Trial
- Intelligent Design, Creationism
- 2011 proposed legislation, New Mexico
- National Science Teachers Association: positions on evolution
- A Hollywood critic takes exception to the purposes and accuracy of the play: a video presentation

DO THIS: Circle the site(s) above that you visited.

2. Search the site and then answer the following questions:

a. List six facts about Scopes trial and/or the theory of evolution that you did not know before your search began. Write in complete sentences to express complete ideas.

3.

4.

5.

6.

b. In searching through the sites, what information surprised you the most? Explain in detail.

c. In what way(s) has your attitude about the Scopes trial and/or the issues of evolution, creationism, or intelligent design been altered based on the information you learned in this assignment? Explain in detail.

d. Find a graphic image (picture, diagram, poster, chart, etc.) that intrigues you and print it out. Learn what you can about the image from the web site and underneath your printed image, write a caption that explains the image by answering these questions: Who? What? When? Where? Why? How? Above your image write a headline that would capture another person's interest in looking at the image. Staple the picture to this form.

3. Find the answers to the following questions in your search of these sites.

a. In the Scopes trial, which lawyer was the prosecuting attorney? Who was the defense attorney? (2 points)

b. Define the following terms. (4 points)

1. Evolution

2. Creationism

3. Intelligent Design

4. Where did you obtain these definitions? _____

How valid do you believe this source to be on a scale of 1 to 5 with 1 being "not valid at all" to 5 being "incredibly valid." Our score: _____ Why?

Bonus questions: The answers can be found on one or more websites.

1. What has happened to Manzanar since the camp was abandoned at the end of WWII?
