

Ethics and Fake News: Addendum – November 2016

Compiled by Sheila Jones, JEA mentor for her mentees

New York Times column: November 29, 2016 on the issues with demanding that Facebook be responsible for authenticating stories – aka, the difference in ethical positions of a social media company vs. the professional press

http://www.nytimes.com/2016/11/29/opinion/facebook-shouldnt-fact-check.html?em_pos=large&emc=edit_ty_20161129&nl=opinion-today&nlid=68398151&ref=headline&te=1&r=0

Diversity Style Guide:

<http://www.diversitystyleguide.com/>

Fake News: Develop your Fact-Checking Skills:

<http://researchguides.ben.edu/fake-news>

Superb resource!!!!!! If you are looking for a one-stop fake news shopping experience, then this is the spot. This link takes you to an excellent research guide from Benedictine University with useful descriptions, links, and visuals to share with your students.